

"JUST SAY KNOW" BIBLE STUDY

A Little Advice

February 27, 2012

Day 1 Read Proverbs 12:15, 13:10, 15:22, 19:20

1. According to these scriptures, what kind of person listens to advice?
2. What qualities would a person have to listen to advice?
3. What characteristics would prevent a person from listening to advice?
4. Why would having many advisors make you successful?

Day 2 Read Exodus 18:13-26

1. Was Jethro's (Moses' father-in-law) advice good advice?
2. How could Moses have responded to Jethro's statement in verse 17?
3. How would you have responded if someone said that to you?
4. In a word, what was Jethro advising Moses to do?

Day 3 Read 2 Chronicles 9:30, 31; 10:1-14, 18, 19

1. Whose advice did Rehoboam listen to?
2. Why would Rehoboam ask for advice from the elders and then reject it?
3. What was the result of Rehoboam taking reckless advice?

Day 4 Read 1 Chronicles 19:1-8

1. What was David's motivation for sending his delegation of men to Hanun?
2. Why would Hanun's nobles think David's motives were devious?
3. How important is it to you to have peers with good judgment?
4. What was the end result of Hanun's listening to bad advice?
5. Have you ever taken bad advice with costly consequences? Explain.

Day 5 Read Proverbs 2:1-10; Isaiah 9:6; John 14:23-26; James 1:5;

1. According to the Proverbs passage, what must we do to get advice (wisdom)?
2. What are the benefits of having wisdom?
3. Who gives us wisdom according to these passages?
4. How do we get advice from God today?
5. In John 14:24, what does Jesus say about those who do not 'take his advice?