

"JUST SAY KNOW" BIBLE STUDY

To Richard With Love

Day 1 Read Colossians 3:12-17 (18-20)

We actually picked this passage to be read for our wedding 25 years ago! (Just through vs. 17)

1. With what five things are we supposed to clothe ourselves?
2. How are we supposed to forgive each other?
3. What binds us together in perfect unity?
4. What needs to dwell in us richly?

Day 2 Read Ephesians 5:21-33

Many people get caught up or turned off by the whole submission thing. However the Bible is pretty clear that this is God's way. And Ephesians 5 shows how it should be done. Unfortunately, many couples abuse and misuse what God is trying to say here.

1. Exactly how are wives supposed to submit to their husbands?
2. Exactly how are husbands supposed to love their wives?
3. In verse 33, what command does God give to the husband? To the wife?

Day 3 Read Ephesians 4:22-32

Obviously, this scripture is for all believers. But if you view it with your spouse as the focus, your marriage will reap many benefits.

1. According to this passage, what are things we should "put off" or "get rid of"?
2. Does verse 26 say not to be angry? (Trust me if you are married, you will be angry!) What does it actually say about anger?
3. How should we talk to our spouse, according to verse 29?
4. According to verse 32, how are we supposed to treat our mate? Again, how are we to forgive?

Day 4 Read 1 Peter 2:21-23

One time, I was trying to find that scripture in 1 Peter 3:7 to 'encourage' my husband to treat me better! (It says the husband's prayers will be hindered if they don't.) But what I found was the Word telling me how to act when I am treated unfairly. Christ left us an example of how to act.

1. List the 5 things Christ did when he was treated unfairly.

Day 5 Read 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

You can't have a good marriage without this one and without God's help to live it out!

1. List the attributes of Love.
